Know someone deserving?

Nominate him or her for a Governor's Ambassador Award. The esteemed annual awards highlight stories of public employees who have significantly and positively impacted the lives of others.

Any state government employee can be recognized for contributions in the area of customer service, courage, leadership, professional achievement, teamwork (two or more employees), or community service and volunteerism.

Award recipients will be honored at a special ceremony during Public Service Recognition Week in October, and with a personalized engraved brick placed along Ambassador Avenue outside the Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History.

Those presently employed or employed within the past 12 months by any of the three branches of government are eligible.
